Clark County Opens Cooling Station

June 24, 2011

There are many homeless Veterans walking the streets in Southern Nevada; yesterday, temperatures reached 110 degrees! In the next couple of day, the forecast calls for more 100 plus degrees days – there is relief. Clark County has opened cooling station throughout the valley. As you find or hear of Veterans that are dehydrated or with extreme sun burn, they will need of a place to get out of the environment. These cooling stations are free and opened to everyone.
